

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center is pleased to present

Humanity Cancer Germline Convergence and Divergence Cancer Predispositions

JANUARY 5-6, 2022

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, in collaboration with the United Arab Emirates Ministry of Health and Al Jalila Foundation, present a joint conference and working group for collaborative research which will lead to improved screening and care for patients with germline inherited genes susceptible or acquired cancer.

Memorial Sloan Kettering
Cancer Center

Welcome

We are pleased to welcome you to the Humanity Cancer Germline Convergence and Divergence Cancer Predispositions conference.

Germline inherited cancer susceptibility is an important cause of morbidity and mortality among different ethnic groups worldwide. A better understanding of genetic variances, if any, may help define the appropriate and most adequate screening and treatment modalities that are best applicable to a specific population. Participants in the conference will include internationally known experts from all continents.

This preparatory meeting, planned for January 5-6, 2022, will hopefully be followed by an inaugural meeting and workshop planned for February 14-15, 2023.

Congratulations on being part of this unprecedented effort in global medical diplomacy.

Thank you!

Accreditation

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA Credit Designation Statement

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 7.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ABIM MOC Recognition Statement

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 7.25 Medical Knowledge MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Faculty Disclosure

It is the policy of MSK to make every effort to insure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all continuing medical education activities which it provides as an ACCME accredited provider. In accordance with ACCME guidelines and standards, all faculty participating in an activity provided by MSK are expected to disclose any significant financial interest or other relationship with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services which are discussed by the faculty members in an educational presentation. As required by the ACCME, when an unlabeled use of a commercial product or an investigational use not yet approved for any purpose is discussed during an educational activity, MSK requires the speaker to disclose that the product is not labeled for the use under discussion or that the product is still investigational.

Instructions for how to claim credit will be emailed to attendees after the conference concludes.
