

2024

MSK Kids Surgery Symposium

OCTOBER 8 • NEW YORK CITY

Zuckerman Research Center
417 East 68th Street

Memorial Sloan Kettering
Cancer Center

Overview

Surgical inventions are integral in the care of many pediatric oncology patients. The complex management of this specialized patient population requires multidisciplinary expertise to achieve the best outcomes.

The purpose of this symposium is to provide healthcare professionals with an overview of advances in the care of pediatric oncology patients undergoing surgery. Focused topics will include advances in surgical approaches, development of the interdisciplinary team, evidence-based and research initiatives in pediatric oncology as well as access to care and the supportive services that ensure an optimal patient and family experience.

The goal of the program is to provide content that enables healthcare professionals to deliver state-of-the-art collaborative care, improve patient outcomes, and enhance quality of life. This well-rounded symposium will incorporate lectures, panels, and case presentations from world-renowned experts as well as our pediatric patients and families to optimize learning and engage an audience of diverse healthcare professionals practicing in this specialty.

This symposium is set to be an exclusively in-person event at Memorial Sloan Kettering's Zuckerman Research Center with ample time for networking and professional collaboration.

TARGET AUDIENCE

The target audience for this symposium includes physicians, certified registered nurse anesthetist, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses and other healthcare professionals who care for the pediatric oncology patient who is undergoing surgery.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this program, attendees will be able to:

- Identify surgical techniques utilized in pediatric oncology and discuss how surgery affects overall outcomes
- Review multimodal postoperative pain management techniques
- Address barriers to access of care and financial toxicities
- Describe the importance of patient and family experience while undergoing/recovering from surgical procedures
- Review the role of ERAS and impact on patient care
- Discuss research topics and impact of research in pediatric surgical oncology
- Discuss the multidisciplinary approach to the pediatric surgery oncology patient and care across the spectrum

SYLLABUS

Attendees will receive access to an online syllabus after the symposium, which includes select PDFs of presentations (slides) and video recordings of the lectures.
